Glittering > Our chromium fire extinguisher – fully chromium-plated and manually polished – presents itself in timeless elegance and integrates itself in stylishly confidence into any surroundings. An ornament for all those appreciating exclusivity and functionality in harmonic alliance.

Use > Whether in representative buildings or in stylishly furnished objects – our design fire extinguishers will be integrated into your rooms in aesthetic perfection.

Use in public-industrial areas may require agreement with the local approving authority for fire prevention. We willingly offer support to clarify problems.

Design fire extinguishers bringing out the main points in your private rooms are not subject to conditions.
